a new dimension in fireplace design

Our exclusive hand-made suspended fireplaces produced by French award winning designer Jean-Claude Bordelet, have been gracing the rooms of luxury hotels, designer residences & extravagant restaurants all over the world since 1976.

Handmade in limited quantities, JC Bordelet fireplaces are dramatically suspended from the ceiling and aim to enhance the ambiance and warmth of any living space. Made in the South of France, Bordelet's hanging wood fires are hand shaped and spun from 4mm thick steel. These artisan engineered designs are highly sort after amongst designers and architects alike. Some of the JC Bordelet range can also be highly customised with an array of colours and finishes to choose from.
